

Partnering for better benefit solutions

Anthem partners with The Standard to offer access to life, disability, and absence management services

To help you find the right benefits for your budget, Anthem has partnered with The Standard to deliver enhanced benefit solutions for you and your employees. This partnership brings together two leading employee benefits providers with deep expertise, local offerings, and a commitment to putting your employees first.

Highlights of our partnership include:

Market-leading life and disability expertise

You and your employees now have access to a team of experts from The Standard who specialize in life, disability, and absence management solutions.

Workplace PossibilitiesSM

The Standard's Workplace Possibilities program takes a proactive approach to helping employees stay at work or return to work sooner. Available through long-term disability, this program helps employers achieve measurable results and includes access to dedicated clinical consultants.¹

Whole Health Savings program

Large groups can save up to 1.5% on their medical premium or $1 per employee per month on their administrative services only rate when purchasing from Anthem and The Standard together.²

Future enhancements

A fully integrated medical, absence, and disability program that connects absence and disability benefits to medical benefits will be available soon.

Learn more about our partnership

Anthem customers can now add group life, accidental death and dismemberment, short-term disability, long-term disability, and leave and absence management plans from The Standard to their Anthem portfolio.

Contact either your Anthem representative or a representative from The Standard for more information about our combined benefits solutions today.

1 Not all services of the Workplace Possibilities program are included with all long-term disability plans. The type of local, on-site support will vary depending on need, employer size, and plan design. In all cases, a consultant is available to you for calls and visits. Contact us to talk about the options available to you.

2 Applies to Large Group employers with up to 5,000 eligible employees. Restrictions apply. Contact your Anthem representative for complete details.
