1 Emergency medical transportation and travel assistance services

When traveling 100 miles or more away from home for up to 120 days, medical emergency transportation services include the arrangement and payment for any reasonable and customary charges determined by AXA Assistance USA, Inc. Vehicle return service is applicable upon activation of medical emergency transportation.

Services must be authorized and arranged by AXA Assistance USA, Inc. No reimbursements will be accepted.

All additional costs would be the responsibility of the member. Services will be provided as permitted under applicable law.

Services will not be provided or available for any loss or injury that is caused by, or a result of:

- Mental nervous condition or diagnosis, unless hospitalized;
- Traveling against the advice of a physician;
- Traveling for medical treatment;
- Traveling to any country subject to U.S. trade or economic sanctions; or
- Pregnancy and childbirth (exception: complications of pregnancy).

No reimbursements for out-of-pocket expenses will be accepted.

- 2 International medical teleconsultation is not an emergency medical response program. In the event of a medical emergency, members should contact their local emergency medical service. Teleconsultation services may not be appropriate for all medical conditions. Carefully review our terms of service available by calling 1 (312) 356-5980. Services are available for limited, non-urgent, non-life threatening medical conditions. Services, including assistance with prescriptions, will be provided as permitted under applicable law. Teleconsultation services are provided by a third-party teleconsultation provider.

Program terms and conditions

AXA Assistance USA, Inc. emergency travel assistance services program is subject to the following terms, conditions and exclusions. Please read carefully:

The AXA Assistance USA emergency travel assistance program is available for those persons eligible for services under this emergency travel assistance services program who are employed by a participating organization at the time emergency travel assistance services are requested, and for whom payment is up to date. Emergency travel assistance services are available when the eligible person is traveling more than 100 miles away from their permanent place of residence, or primary residence in the country of permanent assignment, and the trip does not exceed 120 days.

Expenses unrelated to emergency transportation services, such as hotel, restaurant, taxi expenses or reimbursement for baggage loss while traveling, are not eligible.

AXA Assistance USA will not pay for emergency transportation services expenses or emergency travel assistance services relating to the sickness, injuries or losses of an eligible person:

- 1 Due to normal childbirth, normal pregnancy (except complications of pregnancy) or voluntarily induced abortion;
- 2 Due to the eligible person's mental or nervous condition, unless hospitalized;
- 3 If traveling against the advice of a physician; or
- 4 If traveling for medical treatment.

Expenses related to emergency transportation services are covered in whole or in part through an insurance policy issued by a third-party insurance company. AXA Assistance USA facilitates the delivery of emergency transportation services, and facilitates payment through the third-party insurance company. In connection with those insured emergency transportation services, AXA Assistance USA shall be subrogated to the rights and causes of action of the person for whom emergency transportation services are rendered against said insurance policy or other insurance plans.

The emergency travel assistance services do not apply to the extent that trade or economic sanctions or regulations prohibit AXA Assistance USA and/or the third-party insurance company from providing assistance or insurance, including, but not limited to, the payment of claims.

Emergency travel assistance services are provided or arranged by AXA Assistance USA. There may be times when circumstances beyond AXA Assistance USA's control hinder its endeavors to provide the emergency travel assistance services. AXA Assistance USA will, however, make all reasonable efforts to provide emergency travel assistance services and help the eligible person resolve their emergency situation.

Treatment must be authorized and arranged by AXA Assistance USA's designated personnel to be eligible for benefits under this program. All services must be provided and arranged by AXA Assistance USA. No claims for reimbursement will be accepted. All emergency transportation expenses provided hereunder must be by the most direct and economical route possible.

AXA Assistance USA is not responsible and cannot be held liable, for any malpractice performed by a local physician or attorney, who is not an employee of AXA Assistance USA, loss or damage to the eligible person's vehicle during the return of the vehicle, or loss or damage to any personal belongings.

Legal actions arising hereunder shall be barred unless written notice thereof is received by AXA Assistance USA within 1 year from the date of event giving rise to such legal action. A waiver of liability may be required if evacuation is not deemed by AXA Assistance USA's medical director to be in the best interest of the eligible person. A copy of the waiver is available for review.

There may be circumstances under which AXA Assistance USA reasonably believes that a sick or injured person is an eligible person but cannot verify participation after making inquiries. If, after making reasonable efforts within 72 hours from the time it is notified and AXA Assistance USA is unable to validate the sick or injured person is eligible for emergency travel assistance services, AXA Assistance USA shall not be responsible for providing services or be responsible for any costs related to emergency medical transportation. In addition, AXA Assistance USA shall not be responsible for or accept any expenses or liabilities related to the care of the sick or injured person or expenses or liabilities that may result from emergency transportation being denied or delayed, including, but not limited to, the death or further injury of the sick or injured person requesting assistance.
